

Employment Type: Full time
Salary: commensurate with experience

Job Description

Job Title: Plant Manager, Maysville Operations

Location: Maysville KY 41056

The Plant Manager reports directly to the President and is a member of the Company's top level management team, comprised of the Sales Director, Vice President of Process Engineering, Vice President of Operations and Plant Manager, Maysville Operations. The Plant Manager is responsible for managing Maysville based Engineering and Manufacturing departments to meet customer delivery and company quality goals within company profitability parameters. The person in this position has broad discretionary authority to set priorities, policy and the specifics of the working environment. Presently there are 50 people employed in the Maysville location.

Qualities Desired

1. Intellectual ability including:
 - Verbal and math skills, confirmed through assessment testing
 - Communications skills, both verbal and written confirmed by interview and writing samples
 - Mechanical and Manufacturing aptitude, confirmed by experience and by interview.
 - Strong desire to learn and to improve, confirmed by test
2. Direct Supervision experience over an organizational unit, at least two levels deep.
3. Computer skills with MS office

Job Requirements

Duties:

1. Interface with Corporate Engineering to promote a smooth transfer of technical information.
2. Maintain and work to schedule.
3. Operate the workplace in accordance with regulatory and safety requirements.
4. Receive and meet with governmental representatives visiting the facilities.
5. Administer personnel policies

Please forward resume to resume@glenro.com